About Us

The Nene Education Trust comprises of 8 great academies located in East Northamptonshire with each academy having its own unique character. All aspire to provide opportunities for good learning and developing life relationships in environments where staff and students feel safe and respected and able to pursue the highest possible progress and academic achievement for all. Central to our approach are our core values of respect, enrich and nurture and all staff members within our trust are expected to uphold similar values and put these at the heart of all they do.

Developing character, celebrating achievement, raising aspirations.

We aim to ensure our children and young people are continually challenged to successfully complete their education, develop self-confidence and self-esteem, and to be proactive in determining their career pathway.
